Join us for a 4-trip through the rolling hills of Kentucky into the striking mountainous views of North Carolina. We pack a full itinerary starting first with a stop at the Artesan Center in Berea, KY. This features the work of over 800 Kentucky artisans creating every category of modern and traditional crafts. Southern elegance and thoughtful hospitality greet you at Historic Boone Tavern for a traditional southern meal and a soothing night's stay. We next travel to Chimney Rock State Park and board the elevator for a stunning view of the North Carolina landscape. Just down the road, on our boat tour, we will see where the Dirty Dancing water scenes were filmed at Lake Lure and stay at the Lake Lure Inn where the film crew stayed. A delightful music box presentation is included at that location. Day 3 is all Biltmore from the house tour, to a luncheon at the Stable Café, Antler Village and the beautiful gardens. As we make our way home on Friday, we will see how well retired horses are treated at Old Friends Horse Farm where we will visit these striking racehorses on a walking tour. As we bound for home, we can reflect on our next trip.
