Known as "Little Bavaria" by millions who cross its covered wooden bridge each year, the tiny German Christmas town of Frankenmuth is iconic. During our visit, we will make our own pretzels, witness Bavarian Style Architecture plus experience a world-famous chicken dinner and hear the Glockenspiel Historic Clock's daily chime. A "must" shopping trip awaits at Bronner's, the world's largest Christmas store. It's the size of 1 1/2 football fields and is truly a shopper's dream.

After traveling to the city of Dearborn, we will be spending an entire day visiting the twelve-acre Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village consisting of eighty-one public acres of historic homes and buildings. Everyone will also have an opportunity to catch a ride in a Model T Ford and hop-on the Hershell-Spillman carousel. Last, but not least, we can't be that close to Detroit and not visit "Hitsville U.S.A.", the nickname given to Motown's first headquarters and recording studio. Join the hit parade!
