- Step-on Guide Tour of Paducah with Murals

The Bluegrass State of Kentucky is our May destination, but first, let's spend the afternoon at the Derby Dinner Theater in Clarksville, IN where "Singin' in the Rain," will be the feature. Hollywood of the 1920's is the setting for this light-hearted and romantic MGM classic filled with show-stopping dance numbers and music. Grab your umbrella, it will rain on stage!

On Day 2, we visit the Lost River Cave and Hop aboard the historic Trolley for a tour highlighting the rich and vibrant history of Bowling Green, KY. Learn how it got its name, find out why the city was occupied by the Union and Confederacy during the Civil War, and discover how it became a popular tourist destination and car factory location. And speaking of famous sports cars.....

SPECIAL EVENING PLANNED! Generations Journey Club will have the Corvette Museum to themselves after closing time! We start with a meet and greet, followed by a management-guided tour, and then an elegant 4-course dinner with entertainment and dancing. Lastly, each guest takes home a lovely "Corvette Logo" parting gift. The museum showcase will feature an impressive lineup of Corvettes that have left their mark on film, and television. DON'T MISS THIS EXCITING EVENING!

Our 3-day trip ends in Paducah, KY which overlooks the confluence of the Ohio and Tennessee Rivers. This vibrant river city is the location of the National Quilt Museum with exhibits from around the world. Another example of artistry is on the floodwalls built to protect the city, but which capture Paducah's rich history with 30 different panels. Hail to the Bluegrass State of Kentucky!!
